

AUCTION OF ORIGINAL WORKS OF ART BY THE ARTIST STEWART BOWMAN JOHNSON BY ALFRED ABRAHAM HAMMER & CO

At 3pm on Saturday 22nd of March history will be made. The first of a series of high profile auctions will be held at Hammer's brand new purpose built sale room. The new sale room has been built under the existing Hammer's auction rooms.

The first auction in the brand new exclusive antique and fine art sale room will be a retrospective exhibition and auction of the highly regarded Scottish artist STEWART BOWMAN JOHNSON. Because of public demand viewing of the exhibition will start on Tuesday 18th of March and continue until the auction begins at 3pm on Saturday 22nd of March. Contact Hammer's on 99931123 for opening hours.

Stewart Bowman Johnson was born in Glasgow in 1938. Whilst still a student at the Glasgow School of Art & Design he was selected to exhibit work at The Royal Glasgow Institute of Fine art. Since his first public exhibition in 1961 his work has gained critical acclaim.

Bowman Johnson was the recipient of the prestigious Ben Truman prize in 1977 and his work hangs in public galleries throughout the world. If you want to find out what all the fuss is about and why clients in over 31 countries will have the opportunity to bid for this artists work on Saturday March 22nd call along to Hammer's Auction House Chloraka.
